Christmas Get-Together Date Changed

The date/time for our Christmas social event has changed to Sunday, December 7, at 11:00 AM. Even though our president called the Brookwood Community Restaurant early, there were no seats left for that Saturday.

The Brookwood Community, located just outside of Brookshire, is a non-profit organization giving mentally challenged adults a place to work and be successful, active individuals. Their store carries many items, some made by those adults and some there to fund the facility. Their poinsettias are some of the most beautiful to be found.

Warning: Come hungry! The food and ambience: the best!

Birthday Celebration Shows Mother Chapter 60 Years and Counting...

November 8 found sisters from three chapters joining together to celebrate the founding of Delta Kappa, the first chapter in Montgomery County. Years later the chapter divided and formed our Lambda Kappa chapter for the western part of the county (Magnolia/Montgomery) and Lambda Lambda (The Woodlands) for the southern portion.

The celebration, held at River Plantation Country Club, was well attended by all three chapters, including one who had been a DK member for just over 50 years. Old stories and pictures mingled with newer members, making for an enjoyable day.

Many of our members attended, including Helen Hultquist, former LK president and now a resident of Victoria (far rt).

Dear Sisters,

We had such a memorable time at the birthday celebration, and Ruth Kropp sent a note of thanks to our chapter regarding our attendance. In it she said, "Thank you so much for coming and bringing your group to share in our celebration. You are such a part of us and it would not have been the same without you."

State President Nancy Newton sent an e-card that began with, "That was fun!" The inside read, "Thanks for making our visit to Conroe and the party such an enjoyable event. I so appreciated your efforts to bring so many from Lambda Kappa to the party. I know Delta Kappa was excited to have you all there as well. See you in San Antonio!"

Love,
DiAnn

Let's go for 60 more!

The following is from The Delta Kappa Gamma Society International Communications division. It helps us make our presence a positive one for DKG.

When you walk into your Delta Kappa Gamma meetings, what are you communicating?

Do you hesitate and pause, as if to say, do I belong here, what's my role?

Or, do you stride in purposefully, ready for business, work, or fun?

When you walk into your Delta Kappa Gamma meetings, what are you communicating?

Do you always go to hang out with your friends, your sisters from the chapter?

Or, do you seek out a new member or guest to welcome them as sisters?

When you walk into your Delta Kappa Gamma meetings, what are you communicating?

Do you sit back when there's a need for a volunteer, knowing that Loretta, Shirley, or Pat will come through like always.

Or, do you raise your hand and add your voice to take a risk at something you've never done before?

This Editor: Walking in with a positive outlook can help set the tone of the meeting. Next newsletter will discuss the process of walking out at the close of a meeting.
