Navigating the Journey...

What is your journey? How will you navigate? Look not just at the destination but the journey itself. How will your navigation affect the journey? How will you develop that navigation?

In our planning for our scheduled meetings we included some navigation tactics to continue our celebration of rookie teachers who will be rewarded with a monetary gift to use for classroom materials. The change you bring for our piggy bank is one of the tactics to keep this recognition going.

Our long-standing support of youth who have aged out of CPS protection continues. Our piggy bank change and other monies—as from our preserves and pickles we have sold—as well as our continual donations of money/cards/materials—will culminate when we meet at the youth shelter to provide Valentine surprises and a pizza dinner. Visiting with those residents will give them an opportunity to see what we are about as DKG sisters and that we truly care for them and their well being.

A part of this journey includes carrying out these acts with friends, and we continue to do so. That can be shown through the smiles in our photos and the way we rally around our sisters when problems arise. That DKG fellowship continues to bind us together.

Dear Sisters,

What a summer it has been! We are blessed to get back to some form of normalcy with our successful planning meeting in mid August.

We have grieved with Pat Yarborough, former sister and forever friend, as she lost husband Carval in September.

Thanks go to all of you who have prayed and kept in contact after my son Michael fell asleep while driving and was in a horrific wreck. It's a good feeling to know that so many people asked God for healing, and it has helped him recover. He is doing much better now but still has more healing and therapy to get back to normal again.

Love,
Patty

Thanks for bringing your change to fill our piggy bank. Your change helps us successfully complete our projects to help students and teachers. Your next opportunity will be at the February meeting.
