Wintry Weather Deterred Meeting but not Enthusiasm

Due to bad weather President Patty had to call off our early February meeting at the Yes to Youth Facility, and a later meeting took place February 17. She sent pizza as planned to the youth and staff there, and we enjoyed a later meeting at Rancho Grande in Magnolia.

Bound for the Panhandle!

That’s what many DKG sisters will be saying as they leave for Lubbock and state convention June 15-18. Anyone who has visited that northwestern part of our state knows that some of the world’s friendliest people live there, and they welcome visitors year round.

CALENDAR

- 12/11 Christmas Brunch, DiAnn’s house
- 02/03 Valentine surprises for youth at Bridgeview Youth Center
- 04/12 Clara’s house, Founders Day 5:00

BIRTHDAYS

- 03/05 Carrie C.
- 03/22 Elaine W.
- 05/19 Annette B.

State convention, as our Lone Star News states, is “a place to connect. (Shalan Inmon, State President) The purpose is to “help fulfill the purposes of the Society... (gain) spiritual fellowship” and reconnect in a different setting. Find more information in your spring issue that was mailed to you, or go to www.dkgtxas.org for a complete list of activities and other important information. Then— pack your bags! We’re in for fun and fellowship!

DKG International Meeting in New Orleans

July 12-16 will find many sisters at the international convention in the Big Easy. Go to www.dkg.org for information.

Dear Sisters,

Hello, spring! We welcome a fresh start with the new biennium!

Our officers for the next two years will be, as voted at the February meeting:

President—Patty

Vice President (Programs) - Marcia

Corresponding Secretary—Di Ann

Recording Secretary—Janet

Treasurer—Annette

We need someone for the year-book, and Clara can help with that project. Please let me know if you can help with the yearbook.

Please try to attend the April meeting, our last for this school year.

Love,
Patty

Piggy wants a penny....

Remember to bring your change to our April meeting. Those “pennies” add up and help reward rookie teachers as well as help our youth.

Yes to Youth And the Difference Makers

Did you see the email from Patty recently? She sent an article regarding “our” youth—those pre teens and teens who need a place to call home but are still in school and the ones who are out of school but are homeless. They have originated a giving program so that caring people can contribute funding on a monthly basis to help provide the comfortable and safe atmosphere at the residency home.

Your monthly donation can help in many ways, including:

- Healthy Supports Program for Pregnant & Parenting Teens
- Prevention Presentations and Crisis Counseling in Schools
- Decisions Parenting and Youth Skills Group
- 24-Hour Crisis Hotline
- Individual, Group and Family Mental Health Counseling
- Crisis Intervention for Youth and Families
- Suicide Prevention for Youth and Families
- BridgeWay Emergency Youth Shelter (Ages 10-17) Street Outreach for Homeless Teens
